President's Award

This award recognizes someone involved with the chapter that overall exemplifies service, dedication, passion, and heart. This person may or may not be in a leadership position, yet they still have gone above and beyond the call of duty by volunteering their time and bringing all they have to the table. This individual stands out as a true contributor to our chapter in more ways than one.

The recipients of the President's Award were our partners that make Global Meetings Industry Day possible...Aramark, the Pennsylvania Convention Center, and the Philadelphia Convention & Visitors Bureau. Thank you to Julie Coker Graham, Gene Donato, John McNichol for their support and contributions.
